

Engaging the World: Public Diplomacy Today Tara Sonenshine

Tuesday, April 15

4:00 to 5:00 pm

Abramson Family Founders Room
School of International Service

Tara Sonenshine has had a distinguished career in government, non-profits and the media. She served as Under Secretary of State for Public Diplomacy and Public Affairs under both Secretary Clinton and Secretary Kerry. She is currently Distinguished Fellow, School of Media and Public Affairs at George Washington University. Her high-level experience in the media includes producing news programs for network television and authoring articles for national print and online media. Sonenshine is the winner of 10 News Emmy Awards and other awards in journalism for programs on domestic and international issues.

For more information, and to RSVP, please visit:

<http://www.american.edu/sis/events/Deans-Discussion-Sonenshine.cfm>

Follow the conversation with hashtag

#deansdiscussion