

June – July 2018: Fulbright Summer Participant, UK-US Fulbright Commission Summer Institute Program

- Studied Conflict Transformation and Social Justice abroad at Queen's University, Belfast
- Interacted with citizens of Belfast, Northern Ireland in order to progress mutual learning and understanding through cross-cultural communications
- Furthered the mission of the Fulbright Commission, which is "mutual understand through education"
- Act as an Ambassador of the United States and the Fulbright Commission while abroad

Summer 2018 – Spring 2019: First Year Teaching Assistant, SPA Leadership Program

- Serve as a mentor and an advocate to the first-year students entering the program by providing them with a welcoming community and aiding them in their transition to college
- Collaborate with the leadership professors and fellow teaching assistants to successfully implement the first-year curriculum
- Support freshmen students' work and effort to creating a social action project and providing feedback on written work

Summer 2018 – Spring 2019: Secretary, AU Terrorism and Homeland Security Policy Organization

- Assisted in event planning and organization through booking room, coordinating with speakers, and event promotion
- Provided networking opportunities for both undergraduates and graduate students in the homeland security field
- Collaborated with both undergraduate professors and graduate professors in order to create 5 meaningful events per semester

Spring 2018: Outstanding AU Scholar in Chemical Weapons at American University

Fall 2017: Dean's List at American University

Fall 2017 – Present: Member, American University Pre-Law Society

- Discussed various issues, such as Hate Crimes and Gun Control, within the American justice system with fellow student
- Strategized solutions to solve the above issues

Fall 2017 – Present: Member, American University Scholars Programs, Chemical Weapons from WWI to Today

- Advance and craft research skills over diverse fields
- Gather and present research that has been culminated
- Develop intrapersonal skills when communicating with experts in fields of study

Fall 2017 – Present: Member, American University SPA Leadership Program

- Create social actions projects aimed at affecting change in the public affairs realm
- Develop leadership skills and understand how to utilize them within group settings
- Develop critical thinking skills by analyzing both qualitative and quantitative research methods

August 2016 – August 2017: Chairwoman, FBI Cleveland Citizen's Academy Foundation
Future Agents in Training Alumni Association: Chasing the Dragon Committee

- Lead a group of 20 high school teens in creating an Art Contest
- Communicated with 26 local organizations to display winning poster that raised awareness concerning the opiate epidemic
- Collaborated with experts in the field of drug enforcement to create a successful and meaningful project

June 2017: Undercover Assistant, North Royalton Police Department Tobacco Compliance Checks

- Utilized intrapersonal communication skills to talk with store clerks and police officers and situational awareness skills in order to understand each environment that I was walking into.
- Understood the legality of the tasks being accomplished. Investigated a total of 7 local tobacco stores

June 2017: North Royalton High School Magna Cum Laude

March 2017: First-Place Winner, North Royalton Lion's Club Speech Contest

2016: Pride in Academics Award for Pre-Calculus

June 2015: Student, FBI Future Agents in Training Program

- Explored and analyzed the inner workings of the Cleveland FBI Field Office and various roles each department takes on
- Collaborated with a team of 50 high school students to investigate a mock crime scene

February 2015 – April 2015 to February 2017 to April 2017: Waitress, St. John Bosco Lenten Fish Fry

- Managed a nine-table section on busy Friday nights, all while maintaining a calm and friendly attitude in a stressful, fast-paced environment
- Promoted to waitress after 1-year bussing tables

2015 – 2017: President, North Royalton High School Spanish Club

- Presided over all meetings, ensuring efficient coordination and communication by all members
- Strategized various events that would expose members to aspects of Spanish speaking culture
- Composed monthly reminders and agendas to ensure the club was organized

2015: Pride in Academics Award for Algebra II/Trigonometry

2014 – 2015: Member, North Royalton High School Spanish Club

- Participated in various events that offered exposure to different aspect of the culture of different Spanish-speaking countries around the world
- Utilized my own Spanish-speaking skills

February 2014 – April 2014: Table Busser, St. John Bosco Lenten Fish Fry

- Collaborated with 2 to 3 other bussers to clean tables
- Responsible for managing the whole floor of 50 tables

2014 – 2016: Member, North Royalton High School Drama Club

- Assisted in creating events that supported theater within my community
- Created fundraising programs to fund both the fall play and spring musical
- Utilized intrapersonal skills to teach middle schoolers and freshman the basics of theater

2014: Pride in Academic Award for Biology I

2014 – 2017: North Royalton High School Highest Honors

Summer 2014 – Summer 2016: Booth Captain – Plinko, Saint John Bosco International Festival

- Fundraised $2,169.90 for my parish through running the game of Plinko.
- Connected with children and parents while they participated in the game.

Summer 2014 – Summer 2017: Craft- Room Assistant, Saint Charles Borromeo Bible Camp

- Facilitated an environment where youths ages 5-10 could both develop their creative and fine motor skill an achieve academically.
- Instructed new volunteers on how to communicate with the youths and the best methods to teach the youths.