

Questionnaire

I. Identifying Questions

- A. Where are you from?
- B. How long have you been in Washington, DC?
- C. How old are you?

II. The Opioid Epidemic

- A. What do you believe to be the biggest casualty of the opioid epidemic? (For example, a strain on the public health infrastructure.)
 - 1. In the United States
 - 2. In Washington, DC
 - 3. In your community
- B. What methods do you believe should be taken in order to stop the opioid epidemic?
 - 1. In the United States
 - 2. In Washington DC
 - 3. In your community
- C. Do you see this epidemic coming to end soon?
- D. How can the opioid epidemic be brought to an end?
- E. {OPTIONAL} Do you know someone who has been impacted by the opioid epidemic (overdose, abuse, family member, friend, etc.)?
 - 1. Yes
 - 2. No

III. The Effects of the Parental Opioid Abuse on Children

- A. Have you interacted with children whose parents have abused opioids?
- B. What do you believe to be the most adverse result of parental opioid abuse in children?
- C. Overall, what do you believe can be done to help these children?
 - 1. Educationally, what do you believe can be done to help these children?
 - 2. Socially, what do you believe can be done to help these children?

IV. The Effects of the Parental Opioid Abuse on Parents

- A. Have you interacted with a parent(s) who abuses opioids?
- B. What do you believe to be the most adverse result of opioid abuse on parenting styles?
- C. What can be done to remedy parental opioid abuse?

V. The Effect of Parental Opioid Abuse on the Public

- A. Do you believe opioid abuse is limited to one area, why or why not?
- B. Do you believe parental opioid abuse is a strain on the public system, if so how?
 - 1. Policing
 - 2. Schools
 - 3. Public Health Infrastructure
 - a) Hospitals
 - b) Rehabilitation
- C. What can the criminal justice system do to help both parents and children who are impacted by opioid abuse?

D. What can schools do to help both parents and children who are impacted by opioid abuse?

E. What can public health infrastructure do to help both parents and children who are impacted by opioid abuse?