Honors: SPA Leadership Program

Relevant Courses and Projects:

- Social Action Leadership Project: Within my team, we identified a leadership problem within public affairs, of which pertained to gender roles and their impact on social, domestic, and workplace relationships. Throughout this year-long project, our group focused on associated leadership challenges, and a policy solution to address the leadership problem, all the while applying leadership theories, research methods, and other lessons taught during the course in terms of the challenges facing our issue.
