

DYLAN WINTERS

Anderson Hall Room #457 4400 Massachusetts Avenue NW, Washington DC 20016-8101

+1 202-492-8276

dw5362a@student.american.edu

Education:

Antigua International School, Antigua Guatemala

June 2019

American University, Washington DC

May 2023

Anticipated Bachelor of Arts, Major Political Science, Minor History & International Service

Special Programs include: Leadership Program at the School of Public Affairs, American University

Work & Volunteer Experience:

Secretary-General of the Model UN Club at Antigua International School in Antigua Guatemala August 2017 - June 2019

- Led trips to MUN conferences at NHSMUN in New York, NY and UTMUN in Toronto, Canada
- Organized and helped manage a group of 15 club members
- Organized lesson plans and mock debates throughout the year
- Maintaining contact with schools throughout the region

Volunteered with the Volcano Summit 2018, as well as Volcano Summit 2019 hosted in Antigua Guatemala.

- Responsible for the distribution of information and general directions to notable speakers and diplomats

President of Hall Council for Anderson and Centennial Hall, American University

September 2019 - Present

- Planning and organizing agendas for weekly meetings
- Leading a delegation to the General Assembly of the Residence Hall Association
- Planning and organizing events to attend to student needs
- Responsible for helping to plan and organize a $3000~ budget

Office Assistant

September 2019 - Present

- Printing, scanning, and restocking copy machine
 - Analyzing and verifying information from excel spreadsheets
 - Restocking and maintaining kitchen and other stock
-

Skills:

- 100 words per minute typing speed
- Bilingual and Biliterate in Spanish and English
- Aptitude in Google Drive products, as well as Microsoft Word & Excel