

Master of Arts in International Economics ACADEMIC ADVISING WORKSHEET

Name: AUID:

Course No.	Course Name	Semester/Year
------------	-------------	---------------

Core Courses (24 Credit Hours) [Substitutions may be allowed upon request to the Program Director.]

Students should take ECON-605, which is a prerequisite for ECON-600 and -601, in their first semester

ECON-605	Introduction to Mathematical Economics (3)
ECON-600	Microeconomics (3)
ECON-601	Macroeconomics (3)
ECON-671	International Economics: Trade (3)
ECON-672	International Economics: Finance (3)
SIS-665	International Trade Relations (3)
SIS-666	International Financial Relations (3)
SIS-751	International Political Economy (3)

Tools of Research (6 Credit Hours)

ECON-623	Econometrics I OR
STAT-615	Regression Analysis
	AND
ECON-624	Econometrics II OR
STAT-522	Time Series Analysis OR
STAT-624	Data Analysis

Elective Credits (6 Credit Hours)

6 credit hours in courses approved by either of the Program Co-Directors and selected from SIS courses at the 600 level and above.*

SIS-
SIS-

Capstone Requirement (3 Credit Hours)

SIS-793	Practicum in International Affairs OR
ECON-680	Economics Master's Capstone Seminar

* SIS-616 "International Economics" is recommended for 1st-semester students with no background in international economics.