Education

American University

August 2014 – May 2018

As a student at American University, I have maintained a GPA of 3.07 while also being involved with several extracurricular activities as well as two part time jobs to pay my way through college. I am the head of recruitment for my sorority, PR chair for Relay for Life, and involved in CRU. I am not only majoring in International Relations but also gaining a minor in Psychology.

Mount Airy Christian Academy

August 2010 – May 2014

As a student at MACA, I was on the Dean's list every quarter and finished with a 3.87 GPA. I also served as the Philanthropic Coordinator in National Honor Society as well as class Vice President for two years while participating in three varsity sports.

Experience

Nanny

Fall 2014 – Spring 2018

Nannying is a part time position I took on to help my way through college when I was a freshman until my last year in college. I also nanny over the summer as well.

Kendra Scott Sales Associate

Fall 2016 – Spring 2018

I took on another part time position when I moved off campus and began paying my own rent in order to sustain a life in DC. Through this part time, I have been able to learn retail pretty well and understand the importance of customer service.

The McCain Institute for International Leadership

Fall 2017 – Spring 2018

At the McCain Institute, I have interned for a full year helping in the strategic communications and event planning sector. Through this, I have had the privilege of attending The Sedona Forum and hearing through provoking panel discussions as well as refining my professional, organizational, and event management skills.
