

Natalia E. Maikranz

Washington D.C.
216-956-2909
natmaikranz@gmail.com

Education

American University: Spring 2018
Bachelor's Degree in International Studies
Focus: Environmental Sustainability and Global Health
Universidad Diego Portales: Spring 2017
AU Abroad Cultural and Language Immersion in Chile

Work Experience

Climate Institute: Washington DC, Jan 2018-Present
Research Fellow

- Attend events and network on behalf of Climate Institute to expand partnerships.
- Assist in updating social media presence and use to bolster exposure.
- Write for Climate Alert, an organization blog on climate change threats to increase viewership of the organization's website.
- Research current policies on energy, infrastructure, and the electric grid.

American University Aquatic Center: Washington DC, Aug 2015- Present
Head Lifeguard of Staff Recreation

- Conduct administrative duties to ensure pool and safety compliance.
- Oversee and plan five events for student staff throughout the semester to increase team morale and engagement.
- Manage pool and equipment maintenance to fulfill safety regulations.
- Ensure positive employee relationships to reduce turnover as Team Lead.

International Conservation Caucus Foundation: Washington DC, Sept 2017- Dec 2017
Capitol Hill Outreach Intern

- Research current international issues that pertain to the environment.
- Run outreach to the International Conservation Caucus for events and programs to ensure high rates of member and staff attendance.
- Identify key legislation that focuses on the effects of international conservation efforts.
- Synthesize all ICCF contacts into one easily accessible contact database.

The Ministry of Education in Chile: Santiago, Chile April 2017- July 2017
English Opens Doors Intern

- Coordinate lesson plans for English classes in public schools.
- Assist teachers in class with English grammar, pronunciation, and conversation.
- Lead English activities for students from 10 to 18 years of age.
- Edit online English course for the Ministry of Education's virtual class.

MedWish International: Cleveland OH, May 2016- Aug 2016
Operations Intern

- Organize online database of medical supplies for recipients of aid.
- Conduct inventory for statistical analysis of benefactor donations.
- Create and manage donor surveys to audit their knowledge about donation practices.
- Built online resource for medical equipment handouts and manuals to be sent with donations for recipients of aid.

